Hello ●● ●●

Good to hear from you. This is a new initiative that we just launched to accelerate the energy transition and meet the demand in renewable energy across the ASIA region. Our consultants recommended some credible persons to us for this position and the recruitment process is still ongoing; you happened to be in the list submitted to me.

C-Tech Co., Ltd.'s Renewable Energy & Power Business Division, operates energy generation projects; development, installation, construction and management of solar power generation, wind power generation, and biomass power generation. The company sells and distributes solar power equipment, storage batteries, energy-efficient and electric appliances.

Asia has quickly become a rising star in renewable energy development, and corporations and developers are taking notice, putting Asia above the rest in terms of new investments in renewable energy. Asia Pacific accounts for a whopping 60 percent of the global population and has the world's fastest rising regional energy demand, according to the UN. C-Tech Co., Ltd. is currently breaking 100 Percent into the Asian Market; hence, we seek your partnership as an intermediary and/or liaison to manage our project in your region.

JOB DESCRIPTION

1. Build effective communications and strong relationships with our investors.
2. Manage investment funds for the proposed clean energy project, from our investors.
3. Provide periodic reports and feedback to our Investors regarding the proposed Clean Energy Project.

4. Coordinating with our network of partners
5. Prepare status reports and documentation as required

Contract Duration: Two (2) years

Projects Location: the Singapore, Indonesia, Malaysia, Turkey and Thailand

Time Requirement: 10 to 15 hours per Week

Furthermore, C-Tech Co., Ltd. shall pay a monthly compensation fee of $7,500 USD and you shall receive five percent (5%) service charge/commission of all funds received from our investors in this project. If this position interests you, kindly send the details below and a copy of your resume for further processing and documentation.
